Defendant.)

TO: THE HONORABLE G. MURRAY SNOW, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE.

Upon Defendant's request to admit to a supervised release violation pursuant to Rule 32.1, FED.R.CRIM.P., this matter came on for hearing before U.S. Magistrate Judge Edward C. Voss on May 16, 2012 with the written consents of Defendant, counsel for Defendant, and counsel for United States of America and an Order of Referral from the assigned District Judge.

In consideration of foregoing hearing and the statements made by the Defendant under oath on the record and in the presence of counsel, and the remarks of the Assistant United States Attorney and of counsel for Defendant,

(A) I FIND as follows:

(1) that Defendant understands the nature of the supervised release violation against him and the nature of the violation to which he is admitting;

(2) that Defendant understands his right to a revocation hearing, to persist in his

1 denials and to the assistance of counsel at a revocation hearing, to confront and cross-
2 examine adverse witnesses, and his right against compelled self-incrimination;

3 (3) that Defendant understands what the maximum disposition for the supervised
4 release violation; Defendant also understands that the disposition guidelines are advisory 5 only and that District Judge Snow may depart from those guidelines under some 6 circumstances;

7 (4) that Defendant's admission to violating his supervised release has been 8 knowingly, intelligently and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats;

9 (5) that Defendant is competent to admit to a supervised release violation;

10 (6) that Defendant understands that his answers may later be used against him in a
11 prosecution for perjury or false statement;

12 (7) that Defendant understands that by admitting to violation of his supervised
13 release he waives the right to a revocation hearing;

14 (8) that there is a factual basis for Defendant's admission;

15 (9) Defendant is satisfied with his/her lawyer's representation in all aspects of the 16 Defendant's case at this time; and further,

17 (B) I RECOMMEND that the Defendant's admission be accepted.

18 O R D E R

19 IT IS ORDERED that any objection to the admission proceedings and any 20 request(s) for supplementation of those proceedings must be made by the parties in writing
21 and shall be specific as to the objection(s) or request(s) made. All objections or requests
22 for supplementation shall be filed within fourteen (14) days of the date of service of a copy
23 of these findings unless extended by an order of the assigned District Judge.

24 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all character letters Defendant or his attorney
25 would like the assigned District Judge to read and consider before pronouncing disposition
26 (including the translation of any documents from Spanish to English) must be submitted in 27 paper form with the original to the probation office and copies to the assigned District
28

1 Judge and opposing counsel no later than seven (7) business days prior to the disposition
2 date or they may be deemed untimely by the assigned District Judge and not considered by
3 him/her. (ECF Administrative Policies and Procedure Manual, II § O at 24)

4 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any motions for upward departure, downward
5 departure and disposition memoranda must be filed, at least, seven (7) business days prior 6 to the disposition date. Responses are due, at least, three (3) business days prior to the 7 disposition date. Any motion to continue disposition must be filed promptly upon
8 discovery of the cause for continuance and must state the cause with specificity. Motions
9 to continue disposition filed less than fourteen (14) days before disposition are disfavored.

10 DATED this 16th day of May, 2012.
